

SUZUKI STRING ACADEMY

WASHINGTON CONSERVATORY SUZUKI STRINGS ACADEMY • Ages 3 yrs & older

Our exciting new program fosters joyful young violinists & nurtures a high level of musical excellence using the highly respected & sequential instructional method by Dr. Shinichi Suzuki.

- The method is based on the belief that “every child can” develop musical talent.
- It’s a scientifically verified fact that learning music helps each child reach his or her full potential.
- Music education begins early, through listening.
- The inclusive approach is dedicated to the ideals of a positive nurturing environment and educating the whole person for success.
- Parent/Guardian plays a vital role in the learning process, helps the child practice, and attends lessons & group classes - no experience needed.

Our Program includes violin instruction by expert faculty including:

- Weekly individual lessons
- Group and music theory classes
- Solo and group performances
- Chamber ensembles for intermediate to advanced students
- Outreach concerts in the community
